ST JOSEPH'S CHURCH HALL

We are happy to announce that the Church Hall is reopened for use based on the professional advice offered by the engineer representing 'Pyle consulting', the company handling the works in the hall. The company will continue to work very closely with the church to make sure that whatever is necessary to sustain the life of the Church building and Hall is put in place. Meanwhile we are going to fix the fence in front of the church and floor of the hall.
