FEAST OF PENTECOST

This year, Pentecost Sunday falls on 8th June 2025. We will mark this important feast during the usual Sunday liturgies on that date. However, the main parish celebration of Pentecost will take place the following Sunday, 15th June 2025. On that day, there will be only ONE Mass at 11:00 am, instead of the usual 10:15 am and 12:00 noon Masses. This change is to allow everyone to come together as one community and to enable us to begin our Pentecost Celebration promptly at 12:00 noon. After the 11:00 am Mass on Sunday, 15th June, we will continue the celebration with a "bring and share" party and barbecue in the parish hall. This celebration is especially significant for us as it is also the Feast of the Spiritans (Congregation of the Holy Ghost Fathers and Brothers). The congregation was founded on Pentecost Sunday, 27th May 1703 by Francis Mary Paul Libermann and Claude Paula Desplaces. We invite all parishioners to join in this joyful occasion — a time to reflect on the power of the Holy Spirit and to come together, like the early Church, "with one heart and one soul." Please join us and feel free to invite friends and family to share in this joyful Pentecost experience.

Come one, come all — let us celebrate as a united parish community!
'Happy Pentecost Celebration'

SECOND COLLECTION: This week's second collections are for Spiritans Mission. Thank you for your generosity.

CHURCH FLOWER ARRANGEMENT – VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are kindly seeking volunteers to assist with flower arrangements at the church. If you're able to lend a hand, your help would be greatly appreciated. Please speak to Sandra Jean or contact the parish office if you're interested.

ST JOSEPH'S CHURCH HALL

We are happy to announce that the Church Hall is reopened for use based on the professional advice offered by the engineer representing 'Pyle consulting', the company handling the works in the hall. The company will continue to work very closely with the church to make sure that whatever is necessary to sustain the life of the Church building and Hall is put in place. Meanwhile we are going to fix the fence in front of the church and floor of the hall. Due to this good news, we are going to reopen the Hall for our Sunday school children liturgy, Pentecost, birthday celebration and other social life of the parish. Thanks for your prayers and financial support. May god continue to bless you and your life and give you the best.

REPOSITORY The repository is open after Sunday masses. Please get your sacramentals.
